

The Great Commoner of Ohio Discourse (Classic Reprint)

In no other form does Truth present herself with so much quickening for the intellect, with so much invigoration of the will. For this reason chiefly A vas the AV ord made flesh. All highest revelation to men must come through the form of a man. The storv of a life worthily lived is more convincing than logic, more instructive than philosophy ;it carries an element which transcends all the formularies of science; it contains within itself all that gives the moving thrill to music, and immortality to verse. Thrice, already, since the summer rest, have we been invited to such a sympathetic study of great lives that had suddenly ceased from among us; the Editor and Essayist, Curtis; our Quaker Poet, Whittier; the Laureate of England, Tennyson.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
