

Black Moon (Silver Moon, #2)

As the rise in supernatural disturbances continually expands to more obvious locations, Candras family and friends are on a never-ending hunt to remove the regions dark magic. Greater forces are at work, though, as an accidental link is formed between Candra and Ben, marking their souls and coupling them forever. They can now see each others thoughts and speak to one another telepathically bad news for sworn enemies. Occults spreading across Hartford, along with Candra and Bens mishap, are part of a bigger plan, one that neither the Lowells nor the Conways ever saw coming. There is more than one Ancient in their midst, and these primordial beings are lying in wait until Candra inherits her power. A power which hasnt been seen in over five hundred years. A power which balances one of her enemys. These two powers combined can change the course of history. In order to survive a battle with the Ancients and protect their abilities, the Lowells and Conways will have to work together. Can they rise above their feud, or will they lose everything?
