

Catherine Morland (French Edition)

Après une enfance où elle apparaît comme une sorte de garçon manqué un peu gauche - comportement bien excusable au demeurant, vu le nombre considérable de ses frères - Catherine Morland, est devenue, entre 15 et 17 ans, presque jolie, et son amour de la boue a fait place à une inclination pour les beaux atours. Elle est désormais prête à devenir l'héroïne du roman, ayant nourri son esprit de toutes les lectures propres à la préparer à cette haute destinée. Derrière la jeune fille naïve, ignorante du monde, mais à l'imagination débordante, Catherine Morland cache en effet une âme sincère et sans arrière-pensée, qui la guidera à travers les embûches du monde extérieur qu'elle va devoir affronter.
