

THE GREAT IMPERSONATION & THE GREAT SECRET (Timeless Wisdom Collection Book 1362)

Oppenheim wrote over 120 novels, all best sellers. He featured on the cover of Time magazine on 12 September 1927 and he was the self-styled Prince of Storytellers. This volume contains two great espionage novels: The Great Impersonation, and The Great Secret. In the Great Impersonation, by far the most popular of his novels and a really exciting international espionage thriller, Leopold von Ragastein meets his doppelganger, Englishman Everard Dominey, in Africa, and plans to murder him and steal his identity in order to spy on English high society just prior to World War I. However, doubts of the returned Domineys true identity begin to arise in this tale of romance, political intrigue, and a (literally) haunting past. In The Great Secret a.k.a. The Secret, the plot involves an international conspiracy. The heroine is a beautiful American girl, in another great spy story of the tortured love lives of spies constantly forced to choose their country over their loves
