

The Annual Register, and Virginian Repository for the Year 1800 (Classic Reprint)

Register for the Year 1800, has induced the Editor to lay before the Public a volume more enlarged, and rather more methodical in its arrangement but he does not expedt that to give complete satisfadlion toothers, when he himself is conlcious of its defe ils. A mongfl many inconveniences with which he has had to contend, was much ill health, both in his own perfon, and in thofe of his workmen This, with his diftance from any ready help, and the difficulty he found in obtaining the necelfary intelligence, have prevented its appearance in the month of January, as he wifhed and expeoed. But as every misfortune is faid to bring along with it fonie alleviating circumflances, the book, in fadl, has gained by the accidental delay. The Kditor has had an opportunity of inlerting icveral important articles relative to the late Election of a Prefident, which otherwife would have been defered till next volume indeed he could nut with any propriety pafs over a tranfa6lioia which fo highly interefted the feelings of the new, and attracted the fcioiis attention of the old world When the fword hung fufpended by a hair. If fmall matrcrs may be compared to great, in order to (hew our Readers the nature of the woik, the Englifli Annual Regider for the year 1799 was not publifhed in September lall As a Record of what is pajl it is not necelfary it (hould appear exactly on the firfl day of the new year like an xhnanack And it may ealily be ima2,ined, that it takes omc time atid trouble to arrange and prepare materials even for ib fmall a work as theprefcnt. la the arrangement of the materials which compofe this little volume, it was the Editor fobjc 5l to combine hillorical inflruclion, with a collection of the local events and occurrences of the year.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Phi
