

Excerpt from The Papers of James Madison, Vol. 3: Purchased by Order of Congress; Being His Correspondence and Reports of Debates During the Congress of the Confederation and His Reports of Debates in the Federal Convention, Now Published Form the Original Manuscripts, Deposited in the Department of StatIn Convention, - The Report of the Committee of Detail being taken up, -Mr. Pinckney moved that it be referred to a Committee of the Whole. This was strongly opposed by Mr. Gorham and several others, as likely to produce unnecessary delay; and was negatived, - Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia, only being in the affirmative. The preamble of the Report was agreed to, nem, con. So were Articles 1 and 2. Article 3 being considered, - Col. Mason doubted the propriety of giving each branch a negative on the other in all cases. There-were some cases in which it was, he supposed, not intended to be given, as in the case of balloting for appointments. Mr. G. Morris moved to insert legislative acts, instead of all cases. Mr. Williamson seconds him. Mr. Sherman. This will restrain the operation of the clause too much. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
