

The Personal Touch: A Cooney Classic Romance

In Caroline B. Cooney's classic tale of friendship and first love, a teenage girl discovers that the boy who's always made her life a misery has suddenly morphed into a tall, gorgeous stranger. Sunny Compton lives in the third-oldest house in Seas Edge. She loves life in this timeless New England resort town until the summer people descend, like the Lansberrys, whose son, Tim (whose name Sunny considers an acronym for Terrible Infuriating Monster), exists to make everyone's life miserable. Now it's April 30, and Sunny has exactly thirty days to find a job before the monsters return. But something happened between last year and now. The scrawny, freckled kid who ran over her mother's roses with his father's car has become this completely other person. When did Tim get so tall? Wasn't he totally uncoordinated last summer? And he's so gallant and well-mannered. Worst of all, Sunny's been secretly hoping for a handsome boy to sweep her off her feet. And she's gotten . . . Tim. A book filled with the joy, wonder, and anguish of first love, The Personal Touch is about finding that special someone in a place and a person you never expected . . . and the thrill of those endless summer nights that will never come again.
