

Island Tales Volume 1

The two stories featured here were previously published separately. Both are erotic gay romances for readers of 18+. Island Tales, Volume One Two tales set on the idyllic Isle of Wight, off the south coast of England. A place of outstanding natural beauty, the perfect setting to meet the man of your dreams - although the path to love isn't always smooth. Waiting for a Prince When trainee hairdresser Mark meets Sam in the salon where he works, it's a case of lust at first sight. Too bad Sam has a girlfriend. When the two men meet and become friends, little does Mark realize that it will change his life forever. Although he will still need to get his head around the fact that Sam has been keeping secrets from him - fairly important secrets, actually September's Tide American author David Hannon is sent on vacation to the Isle of Wight in the UK to help combat his writer's block. He's been like this since he threw out his lover five months ago after finding him in their bed with another guy. David quickly falls in love with the tranquil Steephill Cove, which has everything he needs - including the opportunity to get laid regularly, with no strings attached
