

Team Zip It, and the Power of Naught; a Terrifying True Tale of State Sponsored Errorism

A mystery illness. A prestigious hospital. An only child. A fractious family. A formula for disaster. This is the shocking true story of how a medical conundrum quickly morphed into a contest of authority who can say what when, and who cannot. What ensued was a living nightmare, from which there was no escape. According to some, Knowledge is Power. Yet interestingly, forbidding knowledge is also power. This narrative is an expose of the confounding principle of intentional ignorance the will to not know and the consequences that follow. The very balance of power is at stake. For all of us. Take heed!
