

Renaissance Fancies and Studies

Panis Angelicus fit panis hominum. O res mirabilis, manducat Dominum Pauper, Servus et Humilis. These words of the Matins of the Most Holy Sacrament I heard for the first time many years ago, to the beautiful and inappropriate music of Cherubini. They struck me at that time as foolish, barbarous, and almost gross; but since then I have learned to think of them, and in a measure to feel of them, as of something greater and more solemn than all the music that Cherubini ever wrote.
