

Seasick Steve - Ramblin Man

I STARTED OUT WITH NOTHIN, AND IVE STILL GOT MOST OF IT LEFT. It remains one of the most remarkable breakthroughs in music history. Until New Years Eve, 2006, former hobo Steven Gene Wold, a 65 year-old blues musician, playing a beat-up, three-string guitar (aka The Three-String Trance Wonder, or the biggest piece of shit in the world) and stomping on a wooden box with a Mississippi motorcycle plate stuck on (aka The Mississippi Drum Machine), was hardly known outside his tiny community of fans. That performance of Dog House Boogie before Jools Holland and his dumbstruck Hootenanny audience projected Seasick Steve into the big league. Dog House Music sold out overnight. 2007 brought a MOJO, Reading and Glastonbury, and 2008 worldwide success and his major label debut. The rest, as they say, is history. Behind this unique and authentic performers rise is sixty-five years of fascinating life story: he left home at thirteen to escape his stepfathers beatings, and his professional career only began after decades on the road. But blues guitar was in his blood: he learned from blues legend KC Douglas in his grandfathers garage. Part of Steve, the hollerin, stompin blues, and the gorgeous homemade guitars (Jeremy Clarkson described Steves Morris Minor hubcap instrument as the best use of a Morris Minor ever) is magical musical history. But hes also a modern, versatile musician, who can rock as hard as Dave Grohl, and whos rubbed shoulders with the likes of Janis Joplin, Joni Mitchell and Kurt Cobain. Larger than life, and a legend in his own lifetime an incredible true story, told in this, the first full biography of Seasick Steve.
