

Money in the bank had always been a persuasive factor in Bertha Cools life - and Lamont Hawley represented a lot of it. He also represented an insurance company that smelled a rat about a traffic-accident claim. The trouble was the claimant had drifted away - a beautiful blonde who had been co-operative and level-headed. In fact, too level-headed ...she sounded almost professional. Donald Lam didnt like it. Why should a large insurance company need an outside investigator? But Berthas eyes see $$$ so Donald gets cracking, and within no time he is the prime suspect. For what on earth is a body doing in the trunk of Donalds car?
