

Sentry

Marx is a fire-a raging inferno of emotion and power locked into a sixteen-year old girl, forced to hide behind an icy facade. To the other students of Cyprus High, she is the Goth, the smart kid that wont hesitate to attack anyone for looking at her badly. But to those she leads in an ever-vigilant resistance against the scouts of Hell, as they infiltrate her high school, she is a fierce Valkyrie-a faithful defender and a terrible adversary. Now, however, the terms of the fight have changed. A new player has entered the field, one that Marx cant kill in the hidden battlefield that the school has become, one whose connection to one of the defenders has put Marx in his sight. As her sophomore year advances and the ferocity of their conflict grows, she finds that her definition of a demon-her enemy-is starting to change.
