

The Manifesto of the Communist Party: Complete Translation

Complete English Translation - The Manifesto of the Communist Party - Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels From the English edition of 1888, edited by Friedrich Engels The Communist Manifesto (Das Kommunistische Manifest), originally titled Manifesto of the Communist Party (German: Manifest der Kommunistischen Partei), is a short 1848 publication written by the political theorists Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels. It has since been recognized as one of the worlds most influential political manuscripts. Commissioned by the Communist League, it laid out the Leagues purposes and program. It presents an analytical approach to the class struggle (historical and present) and the problems of capitalism, rather than a prediction of communisms potential future forms. The book contains Marx and Engels theories about the nature of society and politics, that in their own words, The history of all hitherto existing society is the history of class struggles. It also briefly features their ideas for how the capitalist society of the time would eventually be replaced by socialism, and then eventually communism.
