

The Raven (First Avenue Classics)

During a dark night in December, a man sits in his room sadly thinking about his lost love, Lenore. Suddenly, he hears a tapping on the door, but no one is there. The noise moves to the window and the man opens it, only to see an ominous raven. The raven only has one thing to say and, as the night goes on, his haunting call of Nevermore begins to make the man more and more paranoid. This unabridged version of Edgar Allan Poes eerie poem, first published in 1884, is accompanied by Gustave Dore's stunning woodcut illustrations.
