

That Guy Who Loves The Universe: A Modern Tale of Setbacks, Second Chances and Spiritual Enlightenment

Meet Sean, a.k.a That Guy Who Loves The Universe; a socially awkward and anxious twenty-something living in the city of Liverpool. After graduating from University, Sean finds himself suffering with the existential blues and decides that he has to do something to find some more meaning in life; he packs up his bags and goes in search of a way to live a happier life. In this book, Sean invites you into the uncensored world of his inner monologue and takes the reader on an emotional and inspirational journey across the city of Hong Kong. Along the way he reveals his own uplifting story of finding peace in meditation centres, coffee shops and five star hotel hot hubs resulting in eight crucial lessons for a life well lived. With mental health statistics currently through the roof this book couldnt come at a better time for those in need of a change. Through the analogy of travel this book answers the question for all those that hunger to be taken on a journey physically, spiritually or mentally. Not since Eat, Pray, Love has a book been able to take on the story of a personal journey and yet translate this into a widely connecting and relatable commentary of personal development and spiritual growth.
