

Sherlock Holmes - The Valley Of Fear (Illustrated)

This is probably the best of the Holmes novels. Like all of them (and the short stories) it is near impossible to put down, and leaves you awestruck at Holmes genius. Doyles writing style is extremely impressive as always, his characters seem so very real! This book is believable, a true masterpiece of mystery literature, and in the top tier of the long list of the great English detective stories. It just doesnt get any better than this. Even the long section without Holmes and Watson in it (The Scowers) is enjoyable to read, and not boring (unlike the Mormon part in a Study In Scarlet). Highly reccommended.
