

The Way to Nirvana

The Way to Nirvanaby L. de la Vallee PoussinInvestigating Buddhist thought on rebirth and transcendence.This is an academic monograph on Nirvana by a French scholar. Poussin contrasts the Hindu and Buddhist views on the cycle of rebirth, and makes a case for original Buddhist concepts of reincarnation as being subtly different than the Hindu, where the soul remains essentially intact across incarnations. He compares the Buddhist view of rebirth to a forest fire (the soul) jumping a river (death), creating an entirely new fire on the other side of the river. He demonstrates the intersection of this topic with Buddhist cosmology, logic, philosophy and ethics. Poussin concludes by reviewing Buddhist techniques for approaching Nirvana. Chapter I. Indian Disciplines of SalvationChapter II. The Buddhist SoulChapter III. Buddhist Definition of KarmanChapter IV. The Doctrine of Karman and Transmigration, Cosmogony, TheogonyChapter V.
